

Brand Ambassador - Seasonal

We are looking for a few energetic extrovert people person types that love to chat and inform people of ways to better their lifestyle by taking transit, ridesharing, using active transportation, and learning about a variety of public agency programs and services.

Bilingual Spanish/English speaking candidates preferred. Events take place Monday through Sunday at various times anywhere from 3 to 8 hours per event, under safe COVID guidelines (when required) and best practices. The brand ambassador would be expected to:

- Travel to client/community sites for promotional and outreach activities
- Engage in community and employer outreach at client tabling and special events and educate attendees about the client's unique products, services, and promotions
- Can follow rules when representing our clients
- Be nice, friendly, professional and play well with others
- Communicate to the client account managers about event activities and provide event recaps

Other:

- Background check required
- Must have own transportation to and from events

Work Remotely

- No